Subject: Grand Traverse County's 2020 Annual Report

Throughout last year, local government, business, community organizations, and individuals pulled together as a community in response to the pandemic. The County's employees showed a great deal of creativity, adaptability, and dedication throughout the year. This report shows our commitment to excellent public service even in difficult times and looks back at some of the department highlights, projects, significant Board actions, and community trends in 2020.
